Canton Theatre Presents

A poster for a jazz performance. At the top, it says 'Northside Choral Jazz Ensemble with the BPA Jazz Orchestra'. Below that, it features a photo of a man playing a saxophone and another photo of a group of people. The name 'Garland Kelley' is written twice. At the bottom, it says 'Canton Theatre November 5th at 7:30PM Tickets $15 on our website or at the door.' and includes the website 'BrainerdPerformingArts.org' and 'Like us on Facebook!' with a Facebook logo. The logo for 'Brainerd Performing Arts' is at the very bottom.

The Cherokee County Historical Society is pleased to announce the upcoming temporary exhibition featured at the Cherokee County History Museum and Visitor's Center. The exhibit will focus on Cherokee County during World War II and features original uniforms, objects, letters, and photographs. There will also be three new videos accompanied by personal first-hand accounts of local citizens who served overseas.

The exhibit will run from October 19 to the end of December and is located in Suite 140 of the historic marble courthouse. The museum is located at 100 North Street, Canton 30114 and is free and open to the public. The operating hours are Wednesday-Friday from 10 to 5pm and Saturday from 10 to 3pm.

The Historical Society would like to issue a special invitation to all Veterans to stop by the Museum on Veterans Day, November 11 for refreshments
